

Kelly Scott and Pullman's Family Law Practice Recognized at 2022 Connecticut Legal Awards

May 13, 2022

Connecticut Law Tribune

Pullman & Comley attorney Kelly A. Scott and the firm's Family Law practice were recognized at the 2022 Connecticut Legal Awards, presented by the Connecticut Law Tribune.

Kelly received the "New Leader in the Law" award which is granted to lawyers under the age of 40 who have excelled in the courtroom, client services and in service to bar associations and in performing pro bono work.

The firm's Family Law practice was the recipient of the "Litigation Department of the Year" award, given to departments whose work had a significant impact in transforming the practice of family law in Connecticut.

The annual Connecticut Legal Awards program acknowledges attorneys and practice areas who have made their mark in the industry and have earned the trust and respect of their clients and peers. To see the full list of honorees, please visit the Connecticut Law Tribune's website.

Professionals

Kelly A. Scott

Practice Areas

Family Law