

A (Tax) Tale of Two Campuses

July 22, 2015

Elliott B. Pollack, co-authored with Melton L. Spivak

National Real Estate Investor

Property Tax and Valuation Department co-chair Elliott B. Pollack co-authored this article examining the tax appeal cases of two corporate office campuses. These two examples, the authors write, underscore "the fickle nature of real estate fads and the difficulty property owners face in convincing tax tribunals that standard valuation matrices may not apply in properly assessing these large, suburban properties."
