

Considerations for Principals of a Faltering Company

April 2, 2009

Fairfield County Business Journal

In the March 30 issue of the Fairfield County Business Journal, Irve J. Goldman writes about important matters for business owners to be aware of in the face of the economic downturn. In his article, "Considerations for Principals of a Faltering Company," he describes some of the types of taxes and wages of employees for which business owners may be liable.

Professionals

Irve J. Goldman

Practice Areas

Bankruptcy, Creditors' Rights and Financial Restructuring

This publication is intended for educational and informational purposes only. Readers are advised to seek appropriate professional consultation before acting on any matters in this update. This report may be considered attorney advertising. To be removed from our mailing list, please email unsubscribe@pullcom.com with "Unsubscribe" in the subject line. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.